

Digging Deep 2020-2021 Weekly Breakdown

(This is just something we use for our local study group to help us stay on track and to pace ourselves through the study. Every week won't be completely equal...I just glanced through and tried to divide up the work as equally as I could at first glance. Of course, you can work faster or slower on the study, but this pacing will allow you to finish in time for Polishing the Pulpit 2021 if that is your goal.)

Each month also has a practically speaking assignment that you can do any time during the month or as instructed in the lesson.
