

Dig-a-bit Month 5 Episode 4
The God of More: The God of More Forgiveness (Part 2)
Cindy Colley

“Our Verse in a Song”

[00:00:00] Hey there. Here we are. Dig abit number four, month five of our study of the God of more. Thank you for joining us. This is gonna be really short and sweet, but we are tentatively planning at the end of this study for those who are at some of the big gatherings at the end to have a singing a women's.

Singing together, using the songs that are about our God of more, more about Jesus, more holiness. Give me those kinds of songs together. And so Glenn and Hannah and I, and this is a cheesy recording, we did not. I don't think we practiced until we stood before the microphone to try to record this. I made up a little tune, a little song with our key verse in it to him who is able to do immeasurably more than we ask or imagine.

According to the power that is at work within us, to him be the glory in the church forever. I took some of those words and made some [00:01:00] lyrics and made a song, and so I'm hoping that in your groups you can sing the song together. You can practice it so that we can sing it when we are together. At the end of the year in some of those, maybe in Branson or maybe in Sevierville. Okay, so I think Jenn has the song and she's going to attach it here so that you can play it for your groups. The words will also be attached. And come on, just humor me and sing with me, and we will sing this song together.

[00:02:00]

To Him, who is able to do.
More than we ask
or imagine
To Him
be the glory
In the church forever.

Forever
and ever.
To Him who is able to do
Immeasurably more
Than all we ask or imagine.

To Him be the glory forever.

Forever
and ever.

To Him who is able to do
Immeasurably more
Than all we ask or imagine.
To Him be the glory forever.

Now I am aware that there is a song that's pretty big that acapella has done and some other groups have done.

That is the words to our key passage, but I [00:03:00] wanted us to be copyright free as we put it up on screens. I wanted us to be able to sing it. That one has a lot of parts and some of those groups put a lot of extra. Zoom zooms in the back, if you know what I mean.

And I don't want us to do that. I just want us to have the pure scripture that we're singing together. So we are not professionals and we do not practice, but I think you can get the tune of this song and maybe we can sing it together when we are together, and that's gonna be a grand time. I cannot wait for it.

I hope that you've had blessings as you've studied the God of more forgiveness. I am in a hotel room right now trying to write our digging deep for 2026-27. That's hard to even say, but I am writing that right now. Looking forward to it. God is blessing us. He has blessed us with. Two baptisms of people who are connected to [00:04:00] digging deep anyway as the month progressed.

And we are so thankful every time that we get to hear about New Sisters in Christ. Thank you for all that you're doing. Thank you for your study. Thank you to those of you who are making soap this month. That's exciting to me. But I'm so thankful, most of all, for the water of purification that we all have as we enter Christ's kingdom in baptism.

I'm thankful to the God of more because he does continually do more than Cindy Colley asks or imagines. Thanks so much. Have a great one.
